

HAWAII THE THEME OF A DISCUSSION QUESTION OF ANNEXATION DEBATED.

The Senate Drops the Silver Bond Bill For a Day—Proposed Pacific Cable—Debate on Pension Amendments in the House—General Washington News.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The consideration of the silver bond bill proceeded in the senate Thursday with Mr. Peffer continuing his speech. As yet no suggestion has been made as to bringing the measure to a vote.

Foreign questions received attention during the day. Mr. Hale spoke for an hour in favor of a Pacific cable connecting the United States and Hawaii. The senator expressed the opinion that the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the United States is certain to be accomplished at an early day.

The Cuban question was briefly discussed in connection with Mr. Call's resolution calling on the state department for information on the status of the uprising.

The Monroe doctrine also received attention in a resolution by Mr. Sewell of New Jersey, declaring the limitations of the doctrine and stating that President Cleveland's attitude was an extension of the doctrine beyond its original scope.

A resolution was adopted asking the state department for further information on Turkish-Armenian affairs. At 4:45 o'clock the senate adjourned till Monday.

Senator Call gave notice that he would soon move to discharge the foreign relations committee from the consideration of the resolutions for recognition of the Cubans as belligerents in order to have the senate vote directly on the question without further delay. Mr. Sherman said such requests might prove a serious embarrassment to our consuls and subject them to persecution by the Spanish or the insurgents in the locality of the consuls.

Mr. Platt (Rep., Conn.) said he had heard much talk as to recognizing the Cuban insurgents. He did not think the proper time had yet arrived. Mr. Call consented that his resolution calling for information go over for the present.

Mr. Hale then addressed the senate on his bill authorizing the postmaster-general to contract with the Pacific Cable Company for transmission of government messages between the United States and Hawaii. Mr. Hale stated that in round numbers the bill commits the United States to a subvention of about $250,000.

The senator detailed the efforts of Great Britain to secure Necker Island as a landing point for a cable, and the frustration of its efforts by the Hawaiian government. Annexation to the United States, he said, was an event sure to come in the near future, and he did not want to precipitate it. Of one thing he felt sure—that with this cable built all the world would take notice that the interests of the two governments and the peoples would become so connected that attempt at interference from outside would forever cease. If we abandoned or were lagged in this great project, our British rivals would take the ground that we had left and by hook or crook get a resting place on the Hawaiian Islands for a great military and commercial British oceanic cable.

Mr. Allen (Pop., Neb.) favored a cable to Hawaii, but opposed the present bill on the ground that he feared that the arrangements proposed would lead to disagreeable complications. He was opposed to subsidies, and said that the present scheme, if executed, would open the doors to an expenditure of probably $500,000,000. He referred to the construction of the Pacific railroads on a subsidy, saying that he thought the government ought to have built the roads itself. Mr. Allen said he favored the Nicaragua canal and a Pacific cable if they were built and operated by the government. At the close of Mr. Allen's speech the cable bill was referred to the committee on foreign relations.

Mr. Peffer then resumed his speech on the pending silver bond bill, his argument being directed against bond issues and the gold standard.

At the close of Mr. Peffer's speech resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Representative Cogswell of Massachusetts were adopted.

of the committee argued that the Cuban revolutionists have no established seat of government; that the republic they have declared is not exercising any civil power or enforcing any laws, and that they have no judicial or legislative machinery. The net result of the meeting was an agreement to intimate to the state department that the committee is waiting solicitously for the information in its possession.

The Hawaiian cable matter was introduced to a subcommittee consisting of Messrs. Hitt of Illinois, Smith of Michigan, and McCreary of Kentucky.

IN THE HOUSE.

General Debate on the Pension Bill Closed Yesterday.

Washington, Jan. 17.—There was an interesting episode in the house Thursday, inspired by Mr. Grow (Rep., Pa.), who declared that the New York chamber of commerce in a pamphlet printed by that body had cast reflections upon the good faith of the house. The pamphlet criticised the house for not paying Canadian sealers the $400,000 it was asserted had been arbitrated and awarded the owners of the seized vessels. Mr. Grow demanded to be allowed to speak upon it, as a question of privilege, but Mr. Crisp (Dem., Ga.) made the point that the pamphlet presented no question of privilege. The speaker ruled that no question of privilege was presented, whereupon Mr. Grow took his seat. The house then resumed the considerations of the pension bill, and an order was adopted that general debate be closed and the bill taken up by paragraphs today under the five-minute rule.

Mr. Clark (Rep., Iowa) thought the names of pensioners should not be dropped from the rolls and said that if the pension office continued its present policy the government might soon have a surplus saved from pension payments.

Mr. Linney (Rep., N. C.), an ex-Confederate, said that he recognized the principle that the government owed the duty of pensioning the soldiers who fought for it, but said he opposed the internal revenue laws, and added that the Northern states received in pensions nearly as much as they paid in internal revenue taxes.

Mr. Bartlett made a vigorous reply to the attacks which have been made upon his first speech during the two days since he made it. He defended the commissioner of pensions against the attacks made upon him during the debate, and quoted figures to show that he was correct in his statement that with the exception of Russia, no country paid more for a standing army than the United States did for pensions. He approved laws giving pensions for disability and disease contracted in the line of duty, but did not think additional laws should be added to the statute books. Mr. Blue (Rep., Kan.), a member of the appropriations committee, explained the provisions of the bill, and attacked Mr. Bartlett's position in a humorous way.

Mr. Moody (Rep., Mass.) then announced the death of General Cogswell, and at 3:45 o'clock, as a mark of respect, the house adjourned.

THE NAVAL SCANDAL.

Secretary Herbert to Testify Before the Senate Committee.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Secretary Herbert will appear before the senate committee on naval affairs on Saturday in obedience to the summons of the committee to give what information he may have in his possession relative to the contracts made by the navy department for the use of Harveyized steel in armor for naval vessels. The proceedings will be conducted on the basis of the Chandler resolution. The motive for the investigation is furnished in a statement which the senator made calling attention to the charges affecting the conduct of Commander William M. Folger, in connection with the Harvey patent, while he was chief of the ordnance bureau and since he retired from that position. It is alleged that while holding that office he induced the expediting of the Harvey patent in the patent office and the adoption of the Harvey process in the manufacture of armor, by reason of an understanding that he should be employed by the Harvey company and have an interest in it.

There is also a statement to the effect that after Mr. Harvey's first application to patent his process had been rejected by the patent office, he filed the second application on the 17th of June, 1891, and that the patent was allowed in the following September. In this connection it is asserted that Secretary Tracy wrote to the secretary of the interior while the second application was pending, requesting that it be made special.

Mention is also made of the fact that while the prices paid by this government to the Carnegie and Bethlehem companies under the contracts made by Secretary Whitney and Secretary Tracy amounted to from $500 to $650 a ton for armor, the Bethlehem company has taken the contract to furnish the armor to the Russian government at $300 a ton.

Discuss Pension Matters.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The pension committee of the Grand Army of the Republic was in session here several hours last night, preparatory to a hearing before the invalid pension committee of the house today. It is not believed to be probable that any general scheme of new pension legislation will be recommended at this time.

NAME THEIR VICTIM AT CHICAGO JULY 7 DEMOCRATS WILL NOMINATE THEIR CANDIDATES.

World's Fair City Wins the Prize on the Twenty-Ninth Ballot—Proposition to Have Closed Doors Is Defeated—The Official Call to Be Issued Soon.

Washington, Dec. 17.—The democratic national convention will be held in Chicago July 7. This conclusion was reached after twenty-nine ballots had been taken by the committee and the struggle had gone on until well toward midnight Thursday night. The detailed vote on the final ballot by states was:

Chicago—Connecticut, Florida, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Tennessee, Vermont, West Virginia, Wisconsin, District of Columbia, Alaska.

St. Louis—Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Delaware, Georgia, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Jersey, North Dakota, South Carolina, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, Wyoming, Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Indian Territory.

Cincinnati—Ohio.

Chicago was voted for on the final round by all the distinguished democrats upon the committee. Clark Howell, Senator Gorman, Josiah Quincy of Massachusetts, William F. Sheehan of New York, William F. Harry of Pennsylvania, Bradley B. Smalley of Vermont, E. C. Wall of Wisconsin and others prominent in national or state affairs all voted for Chicago.

The understanding is that the Chicago delegation will be expected to have a certified check for $40,000 ready for the executive committee when it arrives in Chicago three weeks hence. This will be turned over to the committee, with the keys to the convention hall, and then the Chicago delegation will step down and out and leave the entire management of the convention in the hands of the national committee.

There is to be no appointing of sergeant-at-arms or other officers by the Chicago people, and no claim for large numbers of tickets with which the convention hall can be packed. Everything is to be left absolutely to the national committee. It is expected that that committee will allot a certain number of tickets to the Chicago people, but how many or upon what terms has not been decided. The Chicago delegation was quite willing to leave that matter in the hands of the national committee, content with getting the national convention and preferring to place the responsibility for its management in the hands of that organization and thus avoid any criticism as to mismanagement, such as has been made with reference to a former democratic convention held in that city.

The committee took up the question of the date for holding the convention, and the issue was soon sharply defined by two motions, one to hold it June 2 and another that it be held July 7. The vote resulted 32 to 18 in favor of July 7.

The resolution of Patrick A. Collins of Massachusetts, offered in the convention of 1892, that the next national convention be held behind closed doors was reported adversely by the subcommittee to which it was referred, and the report was adopted unanimously.

Senator Morgan, who held a proxy of Mr. Clayton of Alabama, talked for some time about a proposition to change the basis of representation in the convention to two delegates for each democratic representative in congress and two for each democratic senator and one for each republican senator and representative. But he offered no motion to this effect. He may bring the question up at the convention. It was decided to allow each territory six delegates.

Chairman Harrity expects to issue the usual call for the holding of the convention in a few days. It will be in form very much like the last one, with the change in dates made necessary by the difference in the time of holding the convention. The call will be issued from Philadelphia.

The national committee adjourned without electing the sergeant-at-arms and other officers, who will probably not be chosen for some weeks.

Patriotic Daughters of America.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 17.—The annual meeting of the Patriotic Daughters of America began here yesterday. The reports of the officers show the order to be in fine condition, with an increasing membership and the finances satisfactory. The meeting ratified the action of the national organization in adding an insurance feature, and decided to meet hereafter in conjunction with the Patriotic Sons of America. The next meeting will be at Monmouth Feb. 22, 1897. Emma J. Benjamin, Chicago, was elected president.

Ohio Coal Miners Strike.

Columbus, O., Jan. 17.—One thousand miners at the Morris Coal company struck yesterday. President Morris said one man had been discharged for sending out inferior coal. Because he had not been taken back one thousand miners had struck. The man, he said, would not be reinstated under any consideration.

ARBITRATION WINS DISPATCHES SAY VENEZUELAN TROUBLE TO BE SETTLED.

It Is Reported That Great Britain Has Withdrawn Her Former Hostile Attitude—New Commission May Be Appointed—More Cannon Sent to Venezuela.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Aside from the leisurely manner in which the Venezuelan commission is arranging to prosecute its work there are other indications that the administration has become convinced that this august body will not have the honor of settling the great boundary dispute.

While it cannot be stated positively that this belief is based entirely upon any specific reports from Ambassador Bayard upon the subject, yet there is reason to believe some assurances of a satisfactory nature have come to the state department that the matter will be terminated shortly, probably within two months, or before a report reasonably can be expected from the Venezuelan commission, upon lines that will be unobjectionable to this government.

While details of the arrangements are not obtainable and perhaps have not yet been fixed, it is believed that the basis of it will be arbitration as proposed originally by the United States, but with a limitation that will suffice at least to save British pride and appear to maintain British consistency. This is likely to be found in an agreement between Great Britain and Venezuela directly, brought about through the good offices of a third party, not necessarily nor probably the United States, to submit to a joint commission the question of the title to all territory west of the Schomburgk line, with a proviso that if in the course of the inquiry evidence appears to touch the British title to the lands lying to the eastward of that line, then the body may extend its functions to adjudicate such title.

This arrangement would meet the British contention that the original arbitration shall be limited to lands to the westward of the line, while still conceding the justice of the contention of President Cleveland that the lands on the other side may properly be taken into consideration in fixing the boundary.

Possibly a supplementary arbitration will deal with the question as to the title of the eastward lands, if the original commission dealing with the matter shall find that the title to the lands is a fit subject for arbitration as shown by the evidence produced before it.

MORE CANNON SENT.

British Station on the Guiana Frontier Said to Have Been Strengthened.

New York, Jan. 17.—A special to the World from Caracas, Venezuela, says: "Another expedition, with two cannon, is reported to have left Georgetown, British Guiana, for Cuyuni station, on the Guiana frontier. A cable dispatch from Trinidad says that this second force is to go to the extreme limit of the English claim, though the colonial office at London denies that any force is going there. The papers continue urging energetic action by the government and the construction of telegraphic lines to the frontier.

"The announcement that the reason England declined to accept Pope Leo as arbitrator was because the Vatican possesses documents to prove that Venezuela is right causes a sensation.

"A committee is studying methods of putting into practice a commercial war against England. The government has been asked to revoke the charter of the La Guayara, a breakwater company, an English concern. The rumor that the government is buying war supplies in Germany causes dissatisfaction and much talk. The people say it is unfair to the United States in the present crisis, and that the orders should be placed with American companies."

FAVOR A NEW PARTY.

Michigan Devotees of the White Metal Are Impatient.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 17.—The non-partisan free silver conference held here Thursday was attended by about forty persons from various sections of the state. There was a strong sentiment in favor of the immediate organization of an independent American party. Resolutions were adopted providing that in case neither the republican nor democratic party adopt a platform and nominate candidates positively pledged to the treatment of gold and silver on absolute equality as to coinage at the ratio now provided by law, then it is to be recommended that all friends of free silver in all parties join in the organization of an independent party to secure the full restoration of silver to its former place in the standard money of the United States.

Schooner's Crew Missing.

Chatham, Mass., Jan. 17.—The three-masted schooner William Wilson went down during Wednesday night. No traces of the crew were to be seen, and the life savers are of the opinion that they were taken off by some vessel with which she was probably in collision.

Proposition as to Monroe Doctrine.

London, Jan. 17.—The Graphic editorially asks: "Why not make the Monroe doctrine the subject of a formal treaty between England and America? Such a settlement would facilitate the settlement of future disputes."

SELL SKATES BY THE DRAY LOAD

Janesville Merchants Have Had a Satisfactory Trade This Year.

Local hardware merchants are not complaining of the trade in skates this winter for the majority of them say they have disposed of more skates this year than during the past three seasons put together. The sport has been exceedingly popular this year, the middle aged, and old as well as the young seem to be enjoying it fully. One thing that amused a crowd of boys yesterday afternoon, was to see a gray haired man "cutting the eagle" with all the grace and ease of a boy in his teens.

DISSATISFIED WITH CAMPOS.

Havana Newspapers Express Their Discontent with the Situation.

Havana, Jan. 17.—There is considerable excited comment over the wording of an editorial article which appeared in the Diaro Della Mariana, containing some sensational statements, and headed "An Unbearable Situation." The article declared frankly, and in defiance of the press censor, that the time has come for the government officials to admit that the situation is really serious, and entreated the government to change its present policy, and, if necessary, to put more men in the field, claiming that the revolution is annihilating the commerce and industries of the island.

The Union Constitutional, the Reformist, and the Conservative parties have announced that they decline longer to support Martinez de Campos in his policy for the conduct of the campaign against the insurgents or of Cuban affairs.

RUSSIA WITH GERMANY.

Stand Taken on the Transvaal Question Is Upheld.

Berlin, Jan. 17.—The news of the stand taken by the Russian papers on the Transvaal question was received here with demonstrations of joy. And Russia has now the friendship of the German people as it never did before. Official dispatches from St. Petersburg say that the czar has absolutely refused to sanction the establishment of an alliance between England and Russia other than commercial. The Moscow Gazette, which is said to receive inspiration direct from St. Petersburg, urges Germany to make every attempt to halt Great Britain's policy in Africa. Continuing, the Gazette says that in so doing Germany may depend on Russia for assistance as well as sympathy.

Indiana Town Stirred Up.

Shelbyville, Ind., Jan. 17.—The State Good Citizenship league and the saloon crowd of this place have clashed, and unless the feeling that now exists is quieted down there may be bloodshed. A dozen saloonkeepers have been arrested, charged with having violated every provision of the Nicholson law. Later the mayor of the town caused the arrest of the detectives on the charge of procuring violation of the liquor law. A large and angry crowd followed the detectives to and from the court house and many threats were made. The secretary of the State Liquor league is here and is directing the fight for the saloon people. It is the first time in the history of the city that an effort has been made to regulate the liquor traffic. The people of the place seem to be about equally divided in the fight.

Heavy Storm in Oregon.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 17.—A furious storm raged all along the coast of Oregon and Washington last night. At Cape Flattery the wind blew forty-eight miles an hour, accompanied by a blinding snow storm. Astoria reported a fierce gale, but all wires went down early in the evening. Throughout western Oregon rain and sleet fell all day. In southern Oregon the storm was especially severe, causing a heavy slide on the Southern Pacific railroad at the south entrance to tunnel No. 2 in Iowa Creek canyon.

River of Fire Threatens Aurora, Ill.

Aurora, Ill., Jan. 17.—Fire threatened for a time to wipe out a portion of the city of Aurora Thursday. Fox River, covered with burning oil, was ablaze for a quarter of a mile of its length, and the absence of wind alone prevented the conflagration from communicating to buildings along its banks. The oil was refuse from the Aurora gas factory, and, because of the frozen condition of the river, had accumulated in large quantities on the ice. A spark from a locomotive completed the mischief. The damage done was slight.

Citizens Cheer Doolin's Capture.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 17.—Bill Doolin, the notorious train robber and outlaw, leader of one of the worst gangs of desperadoes that ever infested the territory, was brought here from Eureka Springs, Ark., by his captor, United States Marshal Bill Tilgham, and lodged in the federal jail. Two thousand people assembled at the Santa Fe depot to see the outlaw brought in, and sent up cheer after cheer as he was escorted to the jail, surrounded by a number of deputies.

Want Deeds, Not Words.

Berlin, Jan. 16.—In the reichstag yesterday during the discussion of Count von Kanitz's proposal for the establishment of a government grain monopoly, the count denied that it would raise the price of bread. He also said that the scheme was not socialist and that its chief object was to benefit the peasantry. He concluded with the remark: "The government may look on while the country is being desolated, but we want deeds, not words." (Prolonged applause.)

London, Jan. 17.—The Standard's Berlin correspondent says that Count von Kanitz's motion for a grain monopoly bill is certain to be defeated.

The Crisis in Canada.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 17.—The victory of the Greenway administration in the Manitoba election Wednesday has brought little comfort to the conservative government here. It is felt that Premier Greenway will resist any remedial measures that the federal government may try to impose, his sweeping triumph at the polls showing that he has the sympathy, generally speaking, of his constituents, and, in this event, the Ottawa government will, it is thought, be brought face to face with an awkward crisis.

Counterfeiters Arrested in Kentucky.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 17.—For several weeks there has been a flood of counterfeit silver coin in various county seats in North Central Indiana. They were arrested and a quantity of counterfeit half dollars found in the possession of one of them. The names given are: Robert Lytle, William Clark, Robert Williams, Thomas Morgan and George Booker.

PRESIDENT HARVEY TOLD OF LEARNING

SECOND LECTURE IN THE MIL- TON COLLEGE COURSE.

"The Practical in Education" Was His Theme—Hon. L. B. Caswell to Speak Next—Fairfield Creamery Is Now a Cooperative Concern—Rock River Pulpit Is Supplied.

Milton, Jan. 17.—President L. D. Harvey, of the Milwaukee Normal school, delivered the second lecture of our winter course Tuesday evening. A crowded house greeted him. President Harvey is an old student and graduate of Milton college, and many of the older citizens of the town remember him well. He graduated here about twenty-five years ago and since that time has led a very successful life as a lawyer and a teacher. He was for a number of years superintendent of schools at Sheboygan, Wis., and afterwards became a teacher in the Oshkosh Normal school. In 1890 he was the candidate of the republicans for state superintendent. Some after he was called to the presidency of the Milwaukee Normal. Since then he has made that school one of the best, if not the best, Normal school in the state. Mr. Harvey is a very pleasant speaker. He held his audience in closest attention for nearly an hour and a half.

Told of Education. His subject was "The Practical in Education." He divided the lecture into two parts, viz.: "The practical in higher education and the practical in the common schools." He spoke from the business man's standpoint and asked the question, "Is higher education remunerative to the average young man in dollars and cents?" In the realm science he proved that it was, that all of us are the beneficiaries of those learned and cultured men who have made great discoveries. It is the man who knows how who commands the largest salary in any profession. On the other hand higher education in literature and art is of great advantage to a young man not so much in dollars and cents, but what is better in moral culture and refinement. In the second part Mr. Harvey showed how the teacher in the public school can cultivate her pupils' taste for reading. Give the boy plenty of good reading when he is young and he will have a liking for the standard works when he becomes older.

Used a Hot Compress. One of our physicians was recently called to see a lady patient who had a stomach trouble. He ordered a hot compress applied and departed. A neighbor's wife called and found that the doctor's prescription had been applied, the mold-board of a plow being used for the purpose. The third lecture in the college course will be given by Hon. Luzien B. Caswell of Fort Atkinson, next Tuesday evening. His subject is "Sights in Europe" and will be descriptive of the sights seen by him during a recent visit. The ex-congressman is a close observer and his lecture cannot fail to be interesting and replete with thoughtful information. The State Teachers' Association at Milwaukee last week recommended that "The Badger Song" be sung in all the schools. It was written by Eben E. Rexford and set to music by our own Prof. J. M. Stillman. It is dedicated to the boys and girls of Wisconsin. The music is as "catchy" as the music in some parts of Sullivan's famous operas, and it will no doubt become exceedingly popular.

Other News Notes. The remains of William Paul of Milton Junction, and a Mr. Alder of Edgerton, were brought here for burial Thursday. Mrs. Seaver-Millar was recently elected a director of the Wisconsin W. O. T. U. Home for Women, located at Eau Claire. Clem W. Crumb has been on the sick list this week. PROF. LAMKIN BEAT THE THUGS

Eloquence Was Too Much for Even a Chicago "Lead Pipe Man." Janesville people will remember Prof. J. L. Lamkin, the "spread eagle orator." The Delavan Enterprise tells of the professor's last visit to Chicago in these words: "Catching the true spirit of patriotism from the president's message, Prof. J. L. Lamkin thrust aside the unwieldy buck-saw, and seized the golden opportunity to 'twist the lion's tail.' With a newly prepared blood curdling speech on Venezuela he sallied forth to rouse his countrymen to the dangers of the hour. On Christmas eve, being in the vicinity of Chicago, he rode into the city for a short visit with his son. No sooner had he alighted from the train than he was set upon by a company of foot-pads. The professor is a man of peace—proverbially so, notwithstanding his new lecture consists of three parts of screaming eagle to one of stary banner, and was without carnal weapons. In the wicked city of Chicago, surrounded by a band of desperadoes demanding his money or his life, the situation of the Wisconsin orator was indeed perilous. It was a trying ordeal and none but a Lamkin could so well have met the emergency, and protect his purse, which contained the proceeds of his last night's lecture. Proudly assuming the stately and majestic Websterian gesture that is a specialty with him, he opened his mouth in a torrent of profound eloquence that pierced the heavens and re-echoed back like the thunders of heavy artillery. He fired the contents of his Venezuela speech at them and as the volumes of matchless oratory were unchained and rolled out in the murky atmosphere the mob was appalled. The sublimity of that speech cowed the thugs into silence, turned their wrath into shame and confusion, and they gradually slunk away."

OSHKOSH is to make extensive additions to its water mains so as to improve its system of fire protection. THE Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad has decided to build a new passenger depot at Eau Claire to cost $30,000.

WEICHAUM Bros., dealers in General Merchandise at Forest Junction, made an assignment. The assets are $10,000; liabilities $6,000.

OLE GUNDERSON, who on the 6th of April, 1894, was sentenced by Judge Webb to two years at Waupun, has been pardoned by Governor Upham. IN Oshkosh the fees for arrests by policemen go into the city treasury, except when the chief himself makes an arrest. As a result all arrests are now credited to the chief, and the common council are after Chief Burgess' scalp, claiming he is too hogish.

Always the First. To show new dress goods, both wool and the wash kind. They are coming fast; many beautiful things now on sale; it is our purpose to have our dress goods stock the choicest in the city. Bort, Bailey & Co.

TRADE IN TOBACCO IS RATHER LIGHT

Same Reports Are Made From Edgerton, Stoughton and Albany—Fair Trade Is In Prospect—Soverhill & Porter Find a Lot of High Grade Stock Near Orfordville.

The Rock county tobacco market is quiet—very quiet—and The Janesville Leaf says there are no prospects of an immediate change for the better. The dealers are making no great effort to buy either the old or new leaf of the farmers, and only an occasional crop is picked up. Sales by the packers are very limited and infrequent. Among the sales reported are, 100 cases '94 sold by George H. Rumrill, 12 cases '94 sold by S. B. Heddles.

Those catering to the retail trade report a liberal call for samples and a fairly good trade with liberal shipments. This is also true of Edgerton although some of the local dealers have been pretty actively engaged in the movement of cured leaf. Prices, however, do not seem to partake of much improvement.

At Albany, Green county, the period of the annual holiday quietude has not yet passed. None of the '95 has been sold, and no dealer seems to interest himself in the hundreds of cases of the '93 and '94. The holders of both old and new tobacco are ready and anxious to sell at a fair price, it is unnecessary to state, and the asking price is below the cost of production. The market at Stoughton, Dane County, remains unchanged, and but very little at present is being bought.

George H. Rumrill shipped a car of '94 from this city and another from Evansville this week.

The first week of the new year Barnard & Wilder of Evansville, sold over 500 cases of tobacco.

S. B. Heddles is sampling in Chicago this week as agent for the Western Tobacco Inspection Co.

T. E. Welsh spent last week in Chicago visiting a sister who is a teacher in the public schools of that city. Merritt Haviland started out Monday on an extended trip through the east in the interests of Haviland & Rudolph.

F. S. Baines shipped 300 cases of '94 this week and the samples showed up in good shape. They are clean and smoke well.

Soverhill & Porter are running over their assorting tables some of the finest tobacco ever grown in the state and it cannot be duplicated at present as much of the best '95 is in the hands of the packers, who purchased early. The tobacco is from the famous Orfordville district and has all the characteristics of the finest Wisconsin leaf.

HEIMSTREET'S ORDER NOT OBEYED.

Oshkosh Druggist Will Fight the State Board of Pharmacy. About a week ago Secretary Heimstreet, of the State Board of Pharmacy, sent an order to S. Heymann & Co., proprietors of a department store at Oshkosh, to discontinue the sale of patent medicines, etc., or to place that department in charge of a regular pharmacist. The trouble was caused by a complaint from local druggists, who strongly objected to a dry goods store running opposition and especially to its system of cutting prices. Heymann & Co. accordingly closed their "drug department" for two days, but have again opened it on the advice of counsel and will make a vigorous fight. A section of the state law is supposed to cover cases of this kind, but it is claimed it cannot be enforced where a merchant confines his trade to proprietary medicines.

FLEE FROM THE HOUSE OF GERMS

Janesville Detention Hospital Is Again Without a Tenant.

It takes more than the prospect of microbes, bacteria, germs, and death-spots to make life in a pest house enjoyable. If you don't believe it, ask Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans have been residing in Janesville's "detention hospital," otherwise the pest house. When there was a case of contagious disease, the detention hospital was to be used as such, and when the was no contagious disease, Mr. and Mrs. Evans were to dwell in peace therein. The other night, however, they packed their goods and left, their going being unheralded and unannounced. Chief Acheson looked into the matter, and Mrs. Evans, who is now living in the First ward, said that she was afraid that her three-year-old daughter would catch some disease when they had a patient in charge. And so they moved.

While the pest house is as comfortable a building as there is in the city and as sanitary too, the name is "agin it," and tenants do not stay long.

GAVE A DINNER TO PAY A WAGER

W. H. Greenman Entertains Bort, Bailey & Co's Employees Last Night.

Some days ago W. H. Greenman and F. J. Bailey, of the firm of Bort, Bailey & Co., chose sides with the understanding that the one who sold the least amount of underwear in a given time was to give a dinner to both sides. Mr. Greenman's side was the loser, so the debt was paid last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Greenman, 356 Court street. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock and the meal was an elaborate one. Such occasions indicate that employer and employee are working in harmony and show that both must be getting satisfactory value received.

HERMANN'S GREAT TRUNK TRICK

Herrmann's "Asiatic Trunk Mystery" which he will present here at the Myers Grand next Tuesday evening is one of the most bewildering and wonderful tricks ever put upon the stage. Beside it, all previous illusions of the same character seem simple and common. The feat is performed in the presence and with the assistance of as many gentlemen as wish to come up from the audience and the method of its doing is absolutely inexplicable. Two trunks are produced and thoroughly exhibited, and are seen to be empty. Two girls are introduced, one short and the other tall. The short one while standing is placed in a bag, the mouth of which is enclosed, tied, and sealed by one of the volunteers from the audience, above her head. She is then placed in the smaller trunk, which is locked; this trunk is placed in the larger trunk, which in turn is locked and is further secured with straps, which are sealed. During all this operation, the taller girl sits in view on the stage. The trunks are placed on the floor of an open cabinet, which has a clear space underneath, and which is widely separated from either ceiling or walls. The taller girl steps upon the floor of the cabinet, the curtains of which are then dropped, and in fourteen seconds, the two girls have exchanged places—the shorter one is standing free and when the two trunks are unstripped and unlocked and the sealed bag opened the taller girl is discovered therein. Herrmann's other wonders, which he will produce here, are "The Artist's Dream," the wonderful Hypnotic Sensation, "Trilby," for the first time here, "The Columbian Transformation and others. Madame Herrman will appear in her beautiful spectacular dance Creations.

NAPOLEON'S SON.

Failed to Produce Sufficient Proof—By Profession a Cook.

There has recently died at Arezzo, Italy, at the age of 84, a curious old gentleman, by profession a cook, who persistently claimed that he was the only son and the rightful heir of Napoleon I. and Marie Louise of Austria, says the New York Herald. On his cards were inscribed these words:

Napoleone, Re Di Roma.
Sacrificato.

Translated this runs, "Napoleon, the king of Rome, sacrificed," or as the past participle "sacrificato" has here the force of a noun, the sense of that word might be better interpreted "a martyr."

Marie Louise, it will be remembered, was married to Napoleon after his divorce from Josephine. The ceremony took place at Vienna on March 11, 1810. Almost exactly a twelvemonth afterward, that is on March 20, 1811, the empress gave birth to a son, who was baptized Napoleon and received the title of King of Rome.

It was the proudest day in the life of the great emperor. He was at the apogee of his power. Europe lay at his feet; France worshiped him; the birth of an heir settled the question of the succession and apparently made him the founder of a new and mighty dynasty of kings. But have not the old Greeks taught us that when vain man is at the summit of his fortune Nemesis is already upon his track?

Fourteen months after the birth of his son Napoleon declared war against Russia and set out on that disastrous campaign which was to prove the beginning of the end. Europe precipitated itself upon him. He made a feint of abdicating in favor of his son, who thence got the title of Napoleon II. But immediately after that abdication his wife fled with his son across the frontier to Austria. Almost simultaneously Napoleon reached Elba.

And now comes the gist of the claimant's story. It is a historical fact that Marie Louise received a duchy in Parma, Italy, where she lived with her paramour, the count of Neipperg. The young king of Rome did not join her till some years later. The claimant insisted that he never joined her, but that an illegitimate son of Neipperg and Louise, a year or two younger, was substituted for the true heir as soon as he was old enough to make the deception possible. And the true heir, what of him? He was intrusted to a monk called Capelli, who superintended his education and impressed upon his mind the brilliant future that was in store for him. But Capelli died. All the proofs of the boy's parentage were destroyed. He was relegated to obscurity and finally forced to adopt the profession of a cook. The false king of Rome was brought up in luxury, was created duke of Reichstadt in 1818 and died at Schonbrunn in 1832.

CAPT. NORCROSS REFUSED THE JOB

The Northwestern Electrical Association met at Milwaukee yesterday and elected Captain Pliny Norcross as president of the organization. The Milwaukee papers say that Captain Norcross telegraphed his refusal to accept the office, but the association has decided not to consider it, and unless Mr. Norcross appears in person and presses his refusal it will be ignored.

No Place for That Sort of Thing.

The late Dean Stanley used to relate that a gentleman once called to tell him that he had been into the abbey and had knelt down to pray when the verger had come up to him and told him that he must not kneel there. On asking why not the verger had said: "Why, sir, if I was once to allow it we should have them praying all over the place." This recalls the gentleman visiting a church and asking the sexton whether people ever used it for private prayer, to which he replied: "I ketch'd two of 'em at it once."—San Francisco Argonaut.

IT INCREASES FLESH.

The New Dyspepsia Cure Does It.

A Few Remarkable Instances.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the new discovery which has made so many remarkable cures of dyspepsia and indigestion, has recently shown that it also has the effect of increasing the flesh and weight of thin, run-down people and invalids. This is done in a perfectly natural manner. The tablets by restoring perfect digestion cannot fail to increase the weight and general vigor because the first effect of perfect digestion, following the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, is a vigorous appetite, then complete digestion and assimilation of food eaten, and the result is every muscle, nerve, ligament in the body is nourished and the increase in flesh is noticeable in some cases within a week after using the remedy.

Dr. Harlandson mentions many cases in his own practice where Stuart's Tablets were used an increase of flesh was very noticeable in each case. The doctor says: Whenever I have a patient whose stomach is disordered, tongue coated, poor appetite and run-down condition my advice to such is to go to the nearest drug store and get a 50-cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the result will be the stomach will be set right, perfect digestion restored, all nervousness disappear and in many cases I have seen the weight increased 15 or 20 pounds. I recommend this remedy in preference to any other because it is not a secret patent medicine but is perfectly pure and wholesome, composed of vegetable essences, fruit salts, pure pepsin and bismuth, and can be given to delicate babies with benefit.

Another case is that of Miss Helen Sholes, of Nashville, who writes as follows: "Up to the fall of 1893 I had suffered from dyspepsia for nearly eight years. I was not sick in bed, but was so miserable, run down, discouraged and nervous that I might better have been in a hospital for any good I was to myself or others. For years I had been thin, pale and dyspeptic. Our good old family doctor did all he could for me, and finally advised me to try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, telling me there was no risk in taking it because it was not a secret patent medicine, but every physician knew what the tablets contained. Acting on his advice I went to the drug store, bought half a dozen packages and before they were half gone I knew the right medicine had been found at last. I enjoy an appetite, strength and freedom from weakness that I had never known previously. I gained 18 pounds in weight and while I am not fat (I don't want to be) yet my friends say I am plump enough and any more flesh would be undesirable."

The one great thing about Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is that it can be taken with perfect safety, the formula being known to every physician. No wonderful secret patent medicine can compare with it. Think twice before you put something into your stomach you know nothing about, and if you are run down in flesh, have any trouble with the stomach or poor appetite ask your druggist for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and take no substitute. If your druggist has not got them insist on his getting them for you, as they are sold by all wholesale druggists.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1706—Benjamin Franklin born in Boston; died 1790.

1771—Charles Brockden Brown, noted early American novelist, born in Philadelphia; died 1810. The ancestors of Charles Brockden Brown were Quakers, who came over among the followers of William Penn. As a schoolboy Brown was handicapped with poor health, yet he studied zealously. On leaving school he took up verse writing, and after gaining a name in the magazines as a contributor began to produce novels. At the age of 30 he was the author of six novels which gained immediate success. His stories are classed as the finest produced in America until Cooper came on the stage.

1800—Caleb Cushing, American statesman, born; died 1879.

1801—George Bancroft, historian, died at Washington; born 1801.

1803—General Rutherford Birchard Hayes, ex-president of the United States, died at Fremont, O.; born 1822.

1895—General Israel N. Stiles, a Union veteran prominent in public life in Chicago, died; born 1833. Colonel John Kean, founder and first president of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, died; born 1814.

BONDS WONT ANSWER

The prompt acceptance of Mr. Cleveland's last bond issue is a cheerful sign, but the passage of a tariff bill calculated to increase federal revenue would do more toward strengthening the credit of the United States and removing the troubles that arise from mistrust of its financial health than the sale of a hundred millions of bonds. There has been a jubilee among the old Cuckoo crowd because the month of December showed revenue sufficient to meet expenses, but the month of January promises a deficit amounting to somewhere from eight to ten millions. As it is, the government cannot honestly be said to be on a paying basis. While its credit is good enough to borrow, its business does not stand for permanent solvency. Even if it were able to make both ends meet, the bare ability to scrape through is not enough for an enormous concern like the United States government. Its revenue, its legitimate commercial income, not its borrowing account, must be sufficient not only to guarantee its soundness, but to forbid all apprehension of its embarrassment. A tariff bill to produce that condition of affairs would be better than a government announcement of a thousand millions loan instead of one of a hundred millions.

It is evident that some republican senators are counting too much upon the cinch the party has upon this year's national election. The people want the republican party returned to power because it has always been known as the party of action not of obstruction.

There is awkward crisis in Canada and the victory of the Greenway administration in Manitoba mixes things worse than ever. Greenway is pledged to resist the remedial measures proposed by the government for the benefit of the Roman Catholics in Manitoba.

According to late news the Venezuelans have taken the right tack to bring John Bull down to a common sense basis; they are boycotting English houses and transferring their trade to American establishments.

Now that our sympathy for the poor Armenians is, in some cases, being accompanied by cash contributions, there is reason to hope that some practical good will be done, in spite of the Sultan.

If democrats are so sure the special session is unconstitutional why do they make so much fuss? Republicans are responsible for and are perfectly willing to bear the responsibility.

In retiring the baseball actors one good step was taken. Now let a public frost drive the pugilist actors from the stage and it will be another.

Washington has lately spent a great deal of time upon skates. Perhaps that may account for some of the congressional news.

England's bashful assurance that she was waiting only for somebody else to suggest arbitration in Venezuela is quite good.

Chicago is not left joyless. Democrats were true to her and let her have the presidential convention.

Perhaps the senate will manage to get that Monroe doctrine through before it gets deadlocked.

England knows a lot more about the Monroe doctrine today than she did a month ago.

ADDITIONAL APPARATUS IS TO

Basket and Indoor Base Ball to Be Introduced—District Convention to Be Held at Stoughton—Annual Meeting Tonight—Other Y. M. C. A. News Notes.

Secretary J. C. Kline and Mr. Keeler have decided that more appliances are needed in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium and the following list of articles will soon be added.

Twenty eight pairs of Indian clubs. One basket ball outfit. Four new chest weights. One striking bag. Thirty four pairs of dumb bells. One kicking pad. Neck and foot straps for the chest weights.

With these additions the "gym" will compare with any in the state; with the introduction of indoor and basket ball it will doubtless be a very popular resort for the young men "athletically inclined."

Preparations are now being made by the local members of the district Y. M. C. A. convention which will take place at Stoughton on Jan. 24, 25 and 26. State Secretary Anderson was here last evening to arrange for it and a delegation of at least ten will represent this city. The outcome of the meeting will probably be the forming of an association at Stoughton.

After the annual meeting of the association this evening, Mr. Keeler will explain the workings of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium to any and all who are interested.

The annual meeting of the association will be held tonight.

The lecture by A. E. Matheson, which was to have been delivered at the Y. M. C. A. building on Tuesday evening next, has been postponed to Wednesday evening of next week at the same place. Bear this in mind.

ED. MILLER SHOT TWO PEOPLE

Man Who Visited Here Makes Mineral Point Echo with a Gun.

Perhaps it is just as well that Edward Miller, of Butte, Montana, didn't visit Janesville friends any longer than he did. Miller stopped off here on his way to his old home at Mineral Point the other day, as was told in a personal in The Gazette at the time. Then he went on to his destination, and a dispatch from that city gives the second chapter as follows: "In the saloon of Antone Malatoo, near the depot in this city, the proprietor and his wife were both wounded by shots fired from a revolver in the hands of Edward Miller, between 11 and 1 o'clock last night. Only the three persons named were present. All claim the shooting was without malice, Miller being intoxicated. The saloon keeper and his wife were close together behind the counter, Miller on the outside. The first shot struck the woman in the side, the bullet striking a rib and passing around came out behind. The second shot struck Malatoo in the arm, inflicting a slight flesh wound. Neither are seriously hurt. Miller was arrested this morning, but released on payment of doctor's bill, Malatoo declining to appear as complainant."

Several Janesville railroad men who were in Mineral Point at the time heard the shooting.

LEO MEYER TO OPEN THE STORE.

All He Requires Now is an Order From the Court.

TWO CASES SETTLE ALL THE CLAIMS

MUCH AT STAKE IN RICHARDSON SUITS.

The Nelson Case the Same As Prospective Green County Actions, While the Bostwick Action Disposes of the Dower Question—Will Go to the Supreme Court.

The arguments in the case of A. R. Richardson versus J. M. Bostwick and John Nelson, will be made Wednesday, the taking of testimony having been finished today, and an adjournment taken until that time. The evidence in the Nelson case was all in yesterday afternoon, but this morning Attorney B. B. Eldredge introduced some documentary evidence, to show the chain of title to the Bostwick property, that was not included in the Nelson case.

These suits are both test cases. On the outcome of the action begun against Nelson, the suits to be begun against Green County people hinge, while the Bostwick case will decide all of the claims for Dower's interest. The supreme court will pass upon both suits, regardless of the decision of Judge Clementson, and it is hoped to get the matter before the August term of that court.

Daniel Richardson, the father of the plaintiff in these cases was one of the first contractors in Wisconsin, and was a great friend of Alexander Mitchell, of Milwaukee. Richardson, it is said, built the first court house in Rock county; the first capitol building in Wisconsin and the first bridge across Rock river. From the latter work, it is said, he profited handsomely. It was a toll bridge and in almost constant use. He received grants from the state and county in settlement for his work on public buildings and the land in question in the present cases is said to be a part of that so secured.

SAYS THE ANSWER IS NOT RIGHT. Refuse to Accept the Figures the Bank Said Were Correct.

Settling the $1000 note problem doesn't seem to have settled it. Several from the high school submitted answers while the competition was running and they now insist that $3766.23 is the answer according to law and the rules of exact and applied mathematics; and that no other will stand the tests used by the first class in higher arithmetic and business bookkeeping. The Gazette received a deluge of answers and "kicks" today. The following letter from E. P. Hayward voices the general complaint, so it is reproduced:

EDITOR GAZETTE: I am sorry you have "called in" that problem without giving a proof for the answer $3727.93.

I do not think that answer is correct for the reason that it will not prove according to the conditions stated in the problem. I think all will agree that at the end of the nine years the buyer will have received $5,500 from the mortgagee.

Of this amount $1,500 is what is paid for the loan and I do not see why this amount plus the difference between the face value of the mortgage and what he pays for it is not the interest on his investment.

All that is required by the problem is that the buyer shall realize 6 per cent on his investment and according to your answer the buyer received $1800 plus $4,000 equals $5800.00 (or $3727.93) equaling $2281.15 on his investment. $2281.15 is 55 and 58-100 of $3,727.93 or 6 17-100 per cent. For do you make it figure 6 per cent? I see that Mr. Kingman, of Woodstock, has the same answer. I suppose your answer is figured the same way. He takes part of what the man pays for the mortgage and reckons compound interest on it, or rather says that practically it draws no interest, but at the same time calls it the amount of some number of dollars at compound interest for nine years at 6 per cent. The other part of the money brings simple interest. It seems to me that it is wrong to reckon compound interest on part of the money, and let the rest go at simple interest. The buyer does not require compound interest on any part of the money invested and the mortgagee does not pay compound interest on any part of his loan.

According to Mr. Kingman, the buyer pays $3,333 on which the $200 per year gives him six per cent. At the end of the nine years he receives $6366 more than this amount, which he says is principal and compound interest on $494.59 for nine years at six per cent.

As the buyer does not require compound interest on any part of his investment, figuring that way does not follow the conditions in the problem. Six per cent simple interest for nine years is all that is required, as the problem is stated, and according to those conditions the answer, $3,727.93 is wrong. E. P. HAYWARD, City.

PLEADED GUILTY BEFORE
JUDGE PHELPS TODAY.

He Admitted the Offense Charge In the Complaint Made Against Him By Poormaster S. B. Kenyon and Took His Medicine—One Year's Sentence Was Imposed.

Frederick W. McCoy, laborer, will now learn a trade—shoemaking—as the expense of the tax payers of Wisconsin.

McCoy has made his home at 156 Linn street, his wife having been a widow with a family of several children. Mrs. McCoy is several years older than her husband, who is about thirty-five years of age, and has a grown-up daughter, Miss Mattie Flaherty. The relations between McCoy and Miss Flaherty were not thought to be just what they should be and Poormaster S. B. Kenyon signed a complaint against McCoy in the municipal court. The warrant was given to Constable Cochrane and McCoy was arrested. This was some days ago and the case was adjourned until today. McCoy pleaded guilty when he appeared before Judge Phelps this morning, and upon District Attorney Jackson's filing an information against him, Judge Phelps convicted him and imposed a sentence of one year in the state prison at Waupun, the first two days to be solitary. McCoy formerly resided in Magnolia, but of late has made Janesville his home. He will probably be taken to Waupun tomorrow.

RETURN OF THE BUSTLE.

There Are Indications that It Will Be Worn Later in the Season.
Women who study fashion in a far-sighted way have prophesied for some time that the days of the bustle were about to return, says the New York World. They have said that organ-plaited backs presaged the advent of the bustle and that widely flaring skirts lined with stiffening would inevitably lead to the re-adoption of that clumsy article of attire which women gave up so gladly a few years ago.

The lingerie department in the shops would seem to bear out this prophecy. The bustle has made its reappearance there, tentatively so far, but still with the air of having come to stay. It is not the monstrous article which was banished when clinging skirts became fashionable. It is rather small and is made of haircloth, sometimes black, sometimes gray and sometimes white. It consists of three vertical puffs, which look like the abbreviated lining to an organ-plaited skirt, and it is finished by a frill of haircloth. Its main object is to give the skirt a start in the right direction. A well-lined skirt will flare at the bottom with the aid of a very small bustle.

Of course this slight reappearance of the bustle may be followed by a bustle revival on a large scale, which will make camel-like humps once more the style. Doctors will object violently to the reintroduction of the bustle on the ground of health, and artists will declaim against its use on the score of beauty, but the medical and aesthetic world may grow hoarse with anathemas against it before it will be discontinued if fashion once says authoritatively that it must be worn. Louis Seize coats and the stiff skirts of the Marie Antoinette period demand some bouffancy, and this is obtained only by padding or by a bustle.

A Ghastly Tale.

At the case in Paris for damages against the proprietress of the menagerie at which a lion killed a certain Eyssette who wished to be photographed together with the animal, the attendant on the wild beasts, one Mouillon, gave the following interesting and terrible evidence:

"I left Eyssette outside, and went first myself into the cage, into which I let the lion Romulus, who was lying in a neighboring small cage. I wanted to be photographed with him myself.

"Romulus knew me well, for I have always fed him. He came creeping to me, and lay down at my feet. I doubted whether I would allow Eyssette to come in. He called out: 'You see the lion is quite quiet.' 'Yes,' I replied, 'but Romulus does not know you.'

"After all, I opened the door, and Eyssette came in. Romulus raised his head, and when he saw the stranger he rose slowly and as slowly approached the man, smelt at his knees, and then suddenly rushed upon him.

"He seized him by the throat and threw him to the ground. I got hold of Romulus by the mane and tried in vain to make him let Eyssette loose. The lion pushed me gently away with one paw, and began quietly to drink his victim's blood.

"I got hold of a prong within my reach and beat Romulus with all my might. It was no use. He would not let his booty go. I was in despair, and ran out to call Mr. Lucas, the lion tamer."

DYSPEPSIA THE CHIEF CAUSE OF CONSUMPTION

FACTS WITH WHICH FEW ARE FAMILIAR

Dyspepsia or ordinary indigestion is seldom regarded as a dangerous disease, yet doctors now realize that any disturbance of the digestive function is but a stepping stone to the most dangerous and fatal of all diseases—dread consumption.

This appears very clear when we consider that consumption, as the name implies, is but a consuming of the body's substance. Weakness and emaciation naturally result.

The body of a person who does not properly digest food undergoes wasting, and you may safely assume that every pale, thin person of your acquaintance is not properly digesting and absorbing food. In other words, the substance of the body is being consumed and when the cough puts in an appearance they will be regarded as consumptives.

The symptoms of consumption and those arising from certain forms of indigestion are practically identical. Therefore don't despair even if you think your lungs may be affected. First try to repair your stomach and put it in order. This is best done by a very harmless though very ingenious remedy—the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

This product, prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, aids the digestion of food in the stomach, and when food is once digested, it is quickly absorbed.

If you are dyspeptic, don't wait until some more dangerous disease has appeared. Correct the trouble at once.

A single 10 cent bottle of the Shaker Digestive Cordial will be sufficient to convince you of its merit, and its continued use is almost certain to effect a cure. All druggists keep it and can supply you with an interesting descriptive pamphlet.

CAPT. CHARLES KING.

First Effort in Literature Was Discouraging.

Capt. Charles King, of Milwaukee, is an interesting example of a man taking to literature in middle life and making a notable success. When he was retired from the cavalry service a few years ago for wounds received in the desperate Indian warfare of the plains, he found himself with children to educate and with no resources beyond the slender pay of a captain on the retired list. Some years before, while stationed in the south, he had written a novel which dealt with the disturbed condition of that region during the reconstruction epoch; but he had failed to find a publisher for it, and had made up his mind that he possessed no special talents for writing. After leaving active service he settled in Milwaukee and wrote "The Colonel's Daughter," which proved an immediate success and still sells largely. Like all his later stories, its theme was the life of the army.

Capt. King looked over the field of American literature and found that here was a neglected corner which invited cultivation. French, English and German novelists had found fruitful themes in the peculiar social conditions of garrison life, as well as in the hazards and adventures of actual campaigning. Plenty of books had been written about our civil war, but the regular army officer and soldier in the lonesome posts of the far west, on the long marches across the grassy plains and sage brush deserts and over the mountain ranges of that region, and in bloody conflict with savage enemies, have been wholly neglected. All readers of current fiction know how well Capt. King has succeeded in his chosen line of romantic writing. He is now in receipt of a comfortable income from royalties on his books, has recently made a tour of Europe with his family and finds himself able to provide his sons and daughters with the best education money can command. Public honors have also come to him, and he is now adjutant-general of the state of Wisconsin. I had a chat with him lately on a sleeping car. He is a handsome soldierly man of about 50, with gray hair and mustache, and with a complexion so thoroughly bronzed during his years of campaigning on the frontier that his later years amid the comforts of civilization have not yet bleached it. He is a very modest man about his books, he does not think himself entitled to much credit; he has some faculty for story telling, and has used it to earn money for his family, and that is all he cares to say about it.

FROM THE DARK JUNGLE.

A Big Baboon Brought Over on the Bark Hermes.

An emigrant with an Afro-Hibernian countenance arrived on the Swedish bark Hermes, a captive in chains, says a New York exchange. He is a large South African baboon of intelligent appearance and manners and was brought from East London, South Africa, by the captain of the bark. He is only 18 months old, stands 4 feet in height and with a little training could give that long distance orator, Corbett, a discussion that would make his hair rise in fright and his oily tongue lose its cunning. When the skipper sailed for this country he tied up the baboon with a light chain and a box was given him to sleep in near the cook's gallery, and he often observed the cooking and the cook. One day when the ship had been out a short time he broke his chain and proceeded to smash the crockery in the gallery; in consequence, part of the crew had to eat from various utensils during the remainder of the voyage. Later he again broke a stronger chain and assaulted the captain's son, who was at wheel, and if the first and second mates had not interfered the man would have suffered injury. The ape had a great time on the trip, and to tell of his troubles and fun would fill a volume. He became the pet of the crew for all that and made the voyage a lively one. Notwithstanding his popularity he arrived with an iron collar and an anchor chain tied to it.

Etiquette at Afternoon Tea.

If it is a casual acquaintance, if this is your first card to the house, go about five o'clock and stop not over thirty minutes; fashionable callers will not remain over fifteen minutes; it is, however, not a question of etiquette of time. A half dozen more such visits wait their paying probably. You will wear a bonnet or hat, one that suits your best gown. A theater bonnet is bad form. What would constitute your regulation visiting gown is the correct thing. If you go in a carriage, that mode of transportation allows you a little more freedom in the choice of colors, but to be underdressed rather than overdressed is the lesser of the two evils.

THE GREATEST EVENT OF THE SEASON!

Saturday, January 18, is the date set for the Grand Opening of one of the many branch stores of

The Continental Clothing House!

In order to make this "opening sale" the most memorable one in the history of Janesville, we have decided to quote such ridiculously low figures on our immense stock consisting of Men's Boys' and Children's Suits, Overcoats, Hats and Furnishings that your ONE DOLLAR will have the same purchasing power here as Three Dollars somewhere else. At no time has any house been able to offer you such wonderful bargains as we are now displaying in all departments. On account of lack of space, we will quote you but a few of the many good things which we have in store for you.
